FAIRMONT FARMER'S FESTIVAL SCHOLARSHIP PAGEANT

The pageant will be on Saturday, October 14, 2017. The pageant will begin at 2:00 p.m. You must be at Rosenwald Elementary School on Martin Luther King Jr. Street, no later than 1:00 p.m. When you come, you will need to be wearing your Interview Outfits or Casual Wear.

You may have one (1) person back stage with you while you are getting ready.

Parents will have special seating and each contestant will be giving two (2) passes.

We will have practice on Thursday, October 12th @ 6:00 p.m.

No video cameras will be allowed the night of the pageant. We will have a professional videographer and also a photographer the night of the pageant. Please contact the pageant staff in advance to order a videotape, and also if you are interested in having a picture taken in your gown.

The judges are taken off the Miss North Carolina approved judges list. They are professionals and their decision will be final. Please don't shout negative comments. This is a scholarship pageant not a beauty pageant. Upon request, we will give you any and all comments made by our judges pertaining to your child. You may pick up your child's scores at Angie's Touch of Class. (910-628-6027)

Interview and Tea:

The interview and tea location will be announced at practice. Please come accompanied by one (1) adult. Interview schedule will be announced at practice.

If you have further questions regarding the above information, please do not hesitate to contact me at 910-628-6027.
